Quick Draw Artists

The annual Los Olivos Quick Draw invites art lovers to experience a rare opportunity to step into a "virtual studio" and observe 21 talented artists as they work to complete original pieces in 60-minutes. Following the Quick Draw, visitors have 30-minutes to view the finished work and talk with the artists before everything goes home to the highest bidder during a live auction conducted by Jim Glines.

All work has a $250 minimum bid.

All sales are final and payment-in-full is due at the close of the auction.

Emcee: Jim Farnum - Quick Draw Artist

Vicki Andersen • www.vickiandersen.com

A central Coast artist, Vicki, has been a participant in the Quick Draw since 1995, and is known for colorful impressionistic works in acrylic and oil, often with a palette knife as her major tool. She has painted several commissioned murals and is very active promoting the arts in her community.

Gwen Cates • www.gwencates.com

Gwen has been painting professionally for over two decades, with over twenty solo exhibits. Her work stands in many private collections across the country. Four of her paintings were recently selected for purchase by Cottage Hospital for new additions at the Santa Barbara and Santa Ynez Valley Hospitals.

Chris Chapman • www.chrischapmanfineart.com

Chris is a member of the Oak Group, one of the country's first plein air groups, formed in 1986. A recipient of numerous awards, she exhibits nationally and has been published in fine art books and magazines, most recently Plein Air Magazine, Fall 2012. She is represented by Easton Gallery and Santa Barbara Arts in Santa Barbara

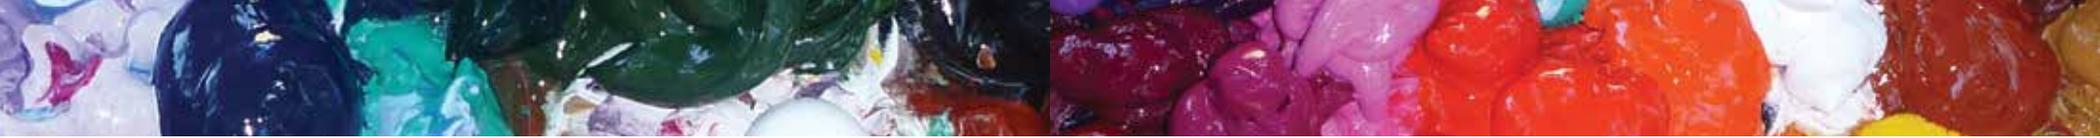

Ken Christensen • www.kenchristensen.net

Ken is a classic on-site landscape oil painter in the bold tradition of the post impressionists and the Fauves. He has had three international one-man exhibitions and numerous exhibitions in the States. Ken Christensen paints with an intensity and bravura that reveals the glory and beauty of even the most mundane scenes.

Camille Dellar • www.camilledellar.com

Camille is a leading light of the California plein air painters. A native of Santa Barbara, she developed her keen observation of landscapes by painting outdoors in the beautiful foothills and beaches that define this area. She has exhibited in prestigious California museums and galleries, and received numerous awards and accolades.

Jim Farnum

Jim's bold use of shape and color describes nature in abstract forms that capture the essence of a landscape. Believing that nature "allows the artist complete freedom of expression," Jim paints nature as a subject rather than an object. His work has been widely collected by both corporate and individual patrons.

Julie Fish • www.juliefish.com

At the age of 30, Julie began to paint in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, with Benigno Gomez, a nationally-sponsored artist with a Masters degree in Art from the Fine Arts Institute in Florence, Italy. He taught Julie an intuitive technique based on seeing things in a variety of shapes and lines. She brings bold colors, exaggeration, and whimsy to her paintings.

Mark Greenaway

Mark was born in San Luis Obispo and raised in Atascadero. He has always had an affinity to the outdoors, including sports, fishing, and wildlife. As a youth spending hours with his camera studying animals in their natural habitat to discover their uniqueness, he took that passion to painting and sculpting. He is a master in pastel.

Suzan Hamilton Todd • www.suzanhamiltontodd.com

Suzan has created some 500 paint-on-ink works. Her quick, relentless brush strokes, sharp lines, and incongruous use of color is essential in her work. Although many people tell her that her work looks unfinished, she encourages people to let their eyes complete the fragmentary parts, allowing for constant discovery.

John Iwerks • www.johniwerks.com

John's love of landscape painting is rooted in his knowledge of the geologic processes that have formed the landscape. The large forces of shifting tectonic plates are extremely interesting to him as he interprets the gesture of the land he paints. He is a member of the Oak Group and is proud to support environmental protection organizations.

Gary R. Johnson • www.garyjohnson.com

Gary is a nationally known wildlife and landscape artist. He believes, "Being a painter is a way of life, you live and breathe art." His artwork has been juried 5 times into the prestigious Art For The Parks Top 100 Competition and juried 6 times into AA and the Animal@ . He has won numerous awards, featured in museums and magazines.

Jack Johnson • www.artjack.org

Jack spent many years as an advertising Art Director and then moved into the film industry as a Production Illustrator, Conceptual Artist and Art Director for feature films, including "Edward Scissorhands", "Toys", and "Jurassic Park III" among others equally famous. His paintings have won major awards in numerous regional and national shows.

George Lockwood • www.lockwood-art.com

George developed a passion for wildlife and the outdoors as a boy through camping, hunting, and fishing experiences. He has won numerous awards and gained national recognition for his art depicting wildlife and landscape. His paintings are a record of his experiences and can be found in private and corporate collections around the world.

Joe Mancuso • www.mancusofineart.com

Joe is a signature member with the Pastel Society of America and in 2007, the Pastel Society of the West Coast elected Joe to "Distinguished Pastelist." This is one of the highest honors to achieve as a pastel painter. His work has exhibited in the Napa Valley Art Museum and hangs in private collections throughout North America.

Joe Milazzo • www.joemilazzo.com

Joe's ability to bring excitement into his images has gained him national recognition. Drawn to the dramatic impact of black and white images, drawing the Western way of life in pen and ink had the power and range of values he was looking for. His work can be seen in select galleries and is sought by collectors internationally.

Vel Miller • www.velmiller.com

Vel concentrates on the more emotional view of the West in her paintings and sculptures. Ranch raised, she knows her subjects through experience and observation. She has earned over 40 "firsts", "Best of Shows" and purchase awards. Her work is displayed in museums and public and private collections internationally.

Richard A Myer • www.richardmyer.com

A member of the American Indian and Cowboy Artists, Richard has done professional design work for firms including Walt Disney Studios and the Tokyo Stock Exchange. Among notable collectors who own his bronzes are former Presidents Reagan and Ford, Gene Autry, Roy Rogers, and Wayne Newton.

Cathy Quiel • www.cathyquiel.com

Cathy, internationally renowned watercolorist, captures her images through a vivid application of pigment. Her paintings are represented internationally in corporate and private collections. Her work has been published and featured in numerous art books and publications, in addition to features in art magazines.

Luis Ramirez • luisrramirez.com

Luis was born in Guadalajara, Mexico, and grew up in rural Santa Ynez. He studied at the Guangzhou Academy of Fine Arts in Guangzhou, China, and CSU Long Beach where he received his BFA in Drawing and Painting. Ramirez's paintings analyze the intimate experiences of family within the culture of California's agricultural community.

Marilyn Simandle • www.marilynsimandle.com

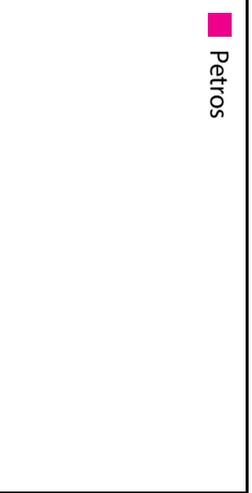

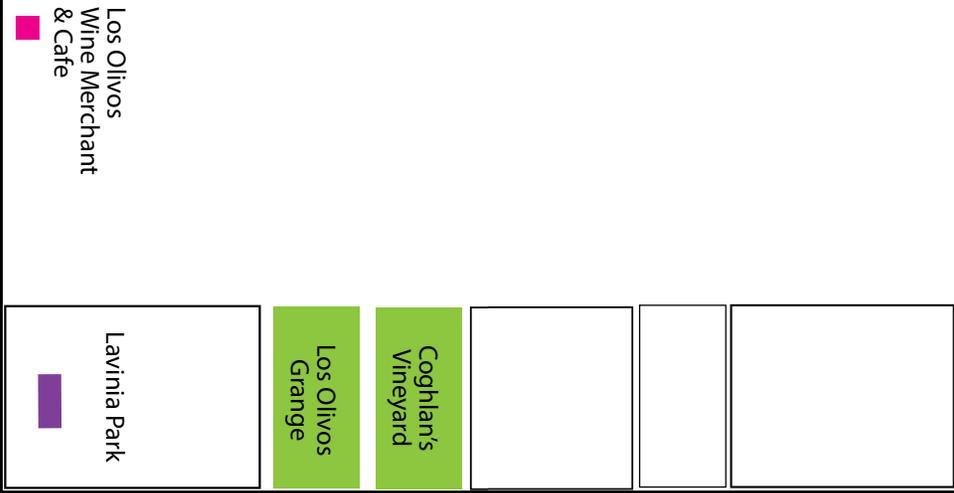

Marilyn is a master Signature Member of Oil Painters of America (OPA), a Signature member of the American Watercolor Society, Plein-Air Painters of America (PAPA) and the California Art Club. She has exhibited in over 80 one-woman shows throughout the U.S.A. and is internationally known and collected by both individuals and corporations.

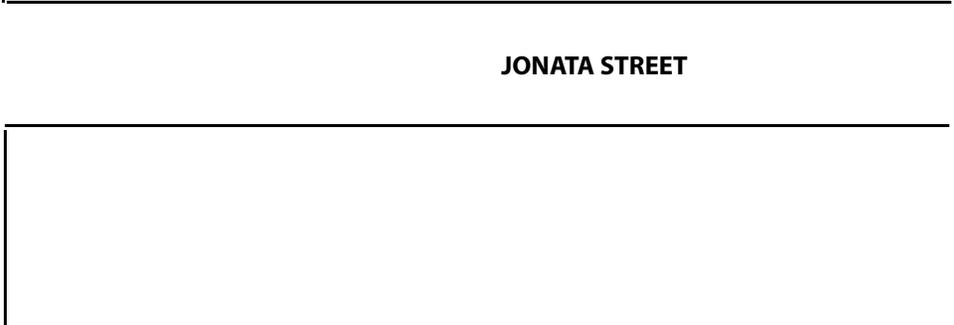

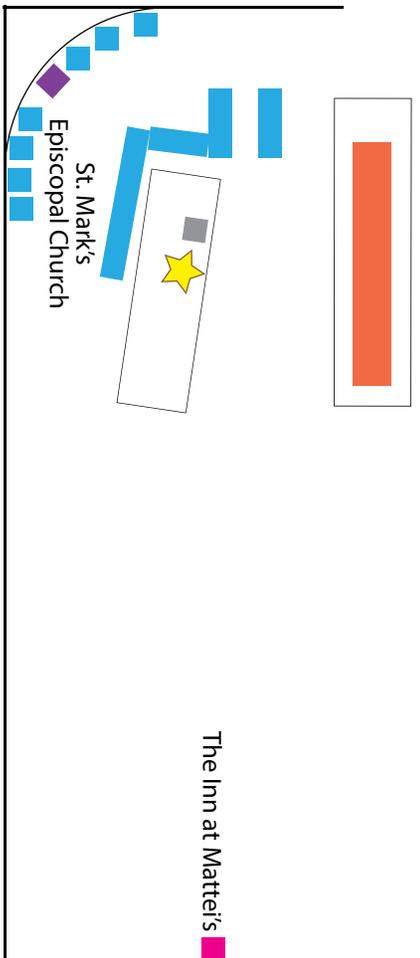

BJ Stapen • www.bjstapen.com

B. J. brings the palette of nature to life through colorful contemporary oil paintings. Focusing primarily on the California central coast, her use of warm, vibrant colors draw attention to the uniqueness of the area. Her work is prized by private collectors and has been selected for permanent display at The Chumash Resort and SB Cottage Hospital.

Emcees:

Jeff Sieck - Local brewer

Kris Parker - Fess Parker Enterprises, local brewer

Michelle Beauchesne • www.michellebeauchesne.com

Michelle has been passionately playing her cello since the age of seven. Soloing with numerous orchestras, she has won multiple competitions at a very early age. She has worked with Leonard Bernstein, Yo Yo Ma, and Isaac Stern at the Tangelwood Festival. She recently completed her first album titled Solo.

Patty Castillo • myspace.com/patricia_lynn_castillo

Patty has written with some of her favorite songwriters: Shawn Mullins, Chuck Cannon, Jack Tempchin and Christian Bush and continues writing for TV, film, and other artists. Her songs tell stories of dreams that came untrue, love lost and found and are entwined with the beautiful golden threads of hope.

Peter Clayton • Santa Barbara Youth Project - www.sbyp.org

Peter learned to play guitar at age 14 and turned to songwriting later as a way to creatively express himself to others. His songs reflect his philosophies and humor about life. He lives in Buellton with his wife Sue. Together they founded and continue to run the Santa Barbara Youth Project, a non-profit organization working with at-risk youth and horses.

Bear Erickson • www.ericksonsoundlabs.com

Bear was born and raised in the Santa Ynez Valley and is connected to his community through talent, experience, and passion for music. Through auditioning for an opportunity to be privately taught by famed Los Angeles guitarist, Steve Hunter (Lou Reed, Alice Cooper, Tracy Chapman), Bear was able to further develop his talent.

Gib Foss

The oldest of the singing Foss Brothers (also known collectively as Zaca Creek) Gib is an intensely personal singer-songwriter whose discography includes such major label releases as Zaca Creek (CBS Records), Broken Heartland (Giant Records), and a more recent Zaca Creek record on Windham Hill.

Lois Mahalia • www.loismahalia.com

Lois, a recording artist singer/songwriter, had her first big song Smile on YouTube, with over 1.6 million hits, and has gone on to perform, record, and tour with artists such as Kenny Loggins, Joe Sample, Norman Gimble, and Joe Walsh. Lois recently finished touring throughout the U.S. with Joe Walsh as he promoted his first new CD in 20 years.

Addison Mills • www.addisonmillsmusic.com

Addison is a sixteen-year-old coffee house singer songwriter. She began writing songs and playing guitar during the summer of 2011. Addison designed and finished her first album, "All The Little Things," in September 2011, and started performing live in November at local coffee shops and boutiques.

Sean McCue • www.seanmccue.com

Sean was a founding member of alternative rock band Summercamp from Santa Barbara, CA, who landed a recording contract with Madonna's Maverick Recording Company in the late 90s. In 2006 Sean teamed up with cellist virtuoso Michelle Beauchesne. The pairing of Sean and Michelle was an exploration in minimalism – vocals, acoustic guitar and cello.

Kathleen Sieck • www.kathleensieck.com

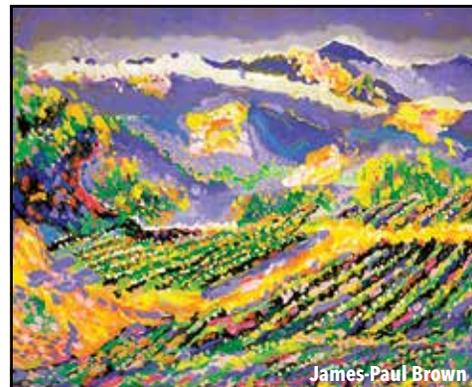

Kathleen's music is evocative of another time and place. Her clear, distinctive voice and poetic lyricism pair together to create a unique type of Americana music. Her melodies have a timelessness and nostalgia that give weight to their story-driven content. She's finishing her first Americana album: Lonely Heart set to be released late summer 2013.

Stephen Styles

Stephen is an accomplished singer/songwriter and former Polydor Recording Artist. His vocal talent alone would be sufficient for most artists with his rich tonal and emotional range. He is a very gifted songwriter working both in California and Nashville, TN. Stephen recently released his first solo album to critical acclaim.

Santa Ynez Valley Arts (SYVA) is one of several committees under the umbrella of the Artists Guild Santa Ynez Valley (AGSYV). A 501(c)(3) non-profit, the mission of the Guild is "to encourage artists in the Central Coast area to grow in artistic ability, to enable them to exhibit their works for sale, and to promote artistic awareness in the community-at-large."

Santa Ynez Valley Arts, under the aegis of the Artists Guild, takes the place of the former Los Olivos Gallery Organization (LOGO) and encompasses the whole Santa Ynez Valley. The committee is currently focused on long-term plans to grow the annual Los Olivos Quick Draw into a premiere Arts Festival destination for the Santa Ynez Valley.
